THE NATION'S WEALTH

The World's Estimate of the Present Wealth of the Country.

The Rapid Spreading of the Russian Influenza to the West.

Chicago and Detroit Physicians Report Several Cases

Progress of the Silent Investigation Committee in Its Work.

[Associated Press Report.]

NEW YORK, December 19.—The World says: The total wealth of each of the great powers of the world is estimated as follows: The United States, $65,037,091,197; Great Britain, $45,000,000,000; France, $40,000,000,000; Germany, $30,000,000,000; Russia, $20,000,000,000; Austria-Hungary, $15,000,000,000; Italy, $10,000,000,000; Spain, $5,000,000,000; Belgium, $3,000,000,000; Holland, $2,500,000,000; Switzerland, $1,500,000,000; Portugal, $1,000,000,000; Sweden and Norway, $1,000,000,000; Denmark, $500,000,000. The wealth of the United States is now equal to the total wealth of the whole world at any time previous to the middle of the 18th century, and is the most invested wealth of any country in the world, and is equal to the national wealth of Portugal and Denmark.

The Russian Influenza Spreading.

DETROIT, December 19.—The Russian influenza has reached Detroit, but in nearly every case so far only bank employes are afflicted. This is attributed, of course, to the report that the microbes feed on paper money and when the germ of the disease has been freely circulated in the city it is expected that the disease will become epidemic.

KANSAS CITY, December 19.—A local physician states that a number of cases of influenza, distinct enough in type to be readily recognizable, have attracted the attention of physicians of this city.

To Make the Loss Good.

WASHINGTON, December 19.—The special house committee investigating the Sioux City deficit, which has agreed upon a report, by the terms of which an appropriation will be asked to make good the shortages found by the members of the board. A separate bill will also be reported making the Sioux City postmaster a defalcation agent.

Five of the seven members of the committee, including the chairman, hold that the government alone was a public officer, so that defaulting members are justified by usage and official recognition, extending over many years, in so regarding it, and that the loss by the malfeasance of clerks should be borne by the public treasury, and not by the members of congress who have not received the compensation to which they are entitled by law. The committee also hold that it would not be justified in taking special depositories with the sureties of banks for the purpose of applying it to the payment of salaries due by the government, and therefore that such public funds shall be restored to the private owners. By the proposed plan arrangements can be made for only about eighty cents on the dollar, however, carry with him the disadvantage of having been in the minority, as the senate was rapidly reaching a conclusion of a secret session.

The Buckskin Mines Caper.

[Special to the Gazette.]

LEADVILLE, Colo., December 19.—Dispatches from J. E. Garrison arrived in this city on Tuesday of this week announcing the taking up the white cap outrage at Buckskin Joe and Kokomo. Attorneys Bennett and Kelley of the latter place started immediately for Fairplay, the county seat, and filed complaints before Justice of the Peace Edward Sparks, against Lewis C. Witherbee, Lee Witherbee, Arthur A. Steele, Edward Sparks, Swan Nelson, Gus Herzog, James Lovell, Joe Pierce and Chas. E. McPherson, charging them upon four separate informations with assault and battery and with conspiracy upon the part of Wm. D. Jones and John L. Bennett. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the complainants, which they gave bonds to appear and answer. The committee also held that it would not be justified in taking special deposits left with the sergeant-at-arms by the parties to applying it to the payment of salaries due by the government, and therefore that such public funds shall be restored to the private owners. By the proposed plan arrangements can be made for only about eighty cents on the dollar, however, carry with him the disadvantage of having been in the minority, as the senate was rapidly reaching a conclusion of a secret session.

Fired at Executive

WASHINGTON, December 19.—There was great excitement in the executive mansion this afternoon when several persons looking up at the gentlemen's gallery discovered a man sitting there and apparently taking a good deal of interest in the proceedings. The attendants were called for awhile and the intruder was dispatched to eject the man, who proved to be a young man about twenty years of age. He evidently had been asleep when the senate went into executive session and was probably discovered before he had any valuable information. He was released, however, carry with him the disadvantage of having been in the gallery when the senate was rapidly reaching a conclusion of a secret session.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

An Attempted Burglary at Gibson's Dry Goods Store.

Two Negroes Break in and the Police Bring Them Out.

Officer Jim McCabe Discovers the Burglars at Work.

A Through Ticket to Canon for a Christmas Present.

About 1 o'clock last night Marshal Patterson McCabe stopped in front of H. W. Gibson's dry goods store on Pike's Peak avenue and found the door ajar, a custom throughout the night. In the store a light was burning brightly and he was about to turn away when he noticed a man's head and body ducked under the counter. He recognized it instantly as that of a negro. He summoned assistance and Policeman Jackson and Night Watchman Appleton, of the bank building responded, and later Policeman Chapman. Mr. Jackson was left to guard the front door and the others went to the rear. All the doors were found securely locked, but Mr. McCabe applied his 200 pounds to the rear one and it gave way. By this time a force of men had arrived from the GAZETTE office and were left to guard the front door while Mr. Jackson joined the besiegers. The police entered the building and their acts could plainly be seen by those in front. As Mr. McCabe entered he saw Louis Washington, a well known colored man of the city, sitting behind the bookkeeper's desk and pretending to be asleep. Mr. McCabe took charge of Washington and Mr. Appleton began a search for more. Under one of the counters was found hiding another colored man named Stephen Koontz. The men were brought out, searched and taken to the city jail. Outside the back door had been piled some blankets and other goods, and upon their persons were found some small articles.

An examination of the store showed how an entrance had been affected. Both men had gotten on the roof and Koontz had lowered Washington through the sky light by means of a rope which he still had about him. He had then let his companion in through the door. They had not broken open the money drawer, but had begun systematically to load up with articles of apparel and household goods. There was no chance of escape after being seen, as they did not get by to the transom. Washington's pockets were filled with spools of thread and light articles.

After getting to the jail Washington was very cool in the matter, but Koontz was much excited. He stated that he had a team and wagon hitched in the rear of the opera house, and this was found to be true. In the wagon was a tent and a Christmas tree, and there was an evident intention to drive away from the city.

There will be much trouble when Washington's part in the affair becomes known to the citizens, as he has been a resident of this city for many years and is well known to the business men. He has been a trusted employe of the different gentlemen's clubs and also the Midland road. Koontz was formerly a waiter at The Antlers, and both have been reaching for some time. Washington has a married man with children. They had a small room rented in the rear of Pierson's barber shop, which they occupied when in the city at night but nothing, was found in it of a suspicious nature but a skein of yarn and a bunch of keys.

The police deserve much credit in the affair, especially Officer McCabe, through whose watchfulness and energy the capture was effected.

WACO, Texas, December 19.—News has reached here of a fight on Tuesday between four farmers without firearms and two robbers armed with six-shooters, in which one farmer, John T. Mathews, was killed. Another, W. H. Harris, was seriously wounded and the others were more or less injured. Jim Leper, supposed to be one of the robbers, was arrested.

Contested Election Cases.

WASHINGTON, December 19.—The sub committee of the house elections committee charged with the arrangement of contested election cases completed its work this morning. It was agreed that the republicans should select one case and the democrats another in alternation until all were arranged. This was done and the hearings began after the holiday recess.

Reported Loss of a Vessel.

NEW YORK, December 19.—It is rumored in shipping circles that the river steamer City of Kingston has been lost. The vessel formerly plied between this city and Rondout, on the Hudson, but was sold to the Northern Pacific railroad to run on Puget Sound. Two weeks ago she left here destined for that place by way of Cape Horn. Since that time nothing has been heard of her.

A Currency Reform.

CITY OF MEXICO, December 19.—An important reform in regard to the currency of the country is about to be put into effect. President Diaz has approved the regulations for the redemption of the worn coinage and its issue in the form of decimal coins, whose use will become compulsory. This does away with the fractional coinage, 12½ cents, 6¼ cents, 3 1-16 and other coinage intricacies.

The Admiralty's Action.

LONDON, December 19.—The admiralty has, by caution in view of the possible straining of relations between England and Portugal regarding their possessions in Africa, has made arrangements to transfer the depot and hospital stores for the Mediterranean and Channel squadrons from Lisbon. Result of a Quarrel.

DENVER, December 19.—A Delta special to the Times says: Last night at 7 o'clock N. W. Piper, a rancher living on Garnet mesa, was shot and killed by Chas. Schweizer, a Swiss. It seems they had been quarreling during the day over a pre emption claim and Piper, with his brother, came up and commenced tearing up the cabin in which Schweizer and his two brothers were taking supper. Schweizer went to the door with his Winchester and shot Piper through the left lung killing him almost instantly. Schweizer immediately came to town and gave himself up.

Fire at Denver.

DENVER, December 19.—Steele publishes a telegram from Barbosa, the Brazilian minister of finance denying assertions in the manifesto recently issued to the people of Brazil by the Viscount Ouro Preto, imperial prime minister in which he stated that although the government had been informed of the conspiracy during the revolutionary movement it was impossible for the civil authorities to crush the plotters because no reliance could be placed in the officers of the army or the soldiers and declared that Maranguape, the imperial minister of war, acted the part of traitor to his colleagues. Barbosa declares that the viscount is a calumniator.

Foran, of the Knights of Labor, was released from custody to-day on bail. Powderly was also arrested on the same charge, but was released on his own recognizance. Powderly published a full statement of the difficulty together with several of Callaghan's letters in the Journal of United Labor in August, 1888, in which he asserted his innocence of the charge brought by Callaghan, and his surprise at the rash utterances of the man. Powderly told a reporter to-day that he knows nothing of the present case but supposes it is a renewal of the charge of conspiracy.

Parnell at Liverpool.

LONDON, December 19.—Parnell was received with a great public demonstration at Liverpool. Are 100 to 110 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition
There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 10-inch main; the largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

The Great Glass Manufacturing Works

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB!
THE SURROUNDING VIEWS ARE MAGNIFICENT!

It must be gratifying to Colonel Davis of the Leadville Herald-Democrat to read the words of praise which that paper in its new form is receiving from the press of the state. It must be still more gratifying for him to feel that his enterprise, energy and home endeavor have made his paper and its editor merit every word in praise that they have received. It is only within the past year or so that the Herald Democrat has given any marked attention to state politics but now the paper is in the front rank in its discussion of that important subject, and its efforts have been without exception in the interest of honest government. The paper has been always strongly republican in its party allegiance, but it has not hesitated to condemn all that it has considered unrepublican in either the ... or platforms of that party. The emperor has been surrounded all his life by sycophants and courtiers and temporizing advisers, but when the need of a true friend came, one with a clear head and strong hand, there was not one to be found.

John Calligan, a Chicago brick mason who is a member of the Clan na Gael, says of the Cronin verdict: "It is an outrage which every Irishman in the land should feel personally called upon to revenge." This is the dictum of a man who it pro... to be no better at heart than the ... who have just passed to their ... finement behind the prison ... comments as this must bring ... ing, law abiding citizen to a realization of the danger to our national life which lies in the presence in our country of such men as Calligan, who, while enjoying every privilege of citizenship enjoyed by the most loyal and patriotic in the land, is ever ready to denounce and trample on the laws which are the very foundation of the republic. Few criminal trials in our history have been so generally commended for their fairness as the Cronin trial. The jury was chosen in such a way as to preclude suspicion, the presiding judge's efforts were so constantly exerted on the side of justice as to call forth praise from sources not given to praise in ordinary cases, the prosecution's case was worked out with unusual fairness, the defense was given every opportunity to prove innocence, the court's instructions were unquestionably impartial, and the jury's verdict was only reached after the most careful and prolonged deliberation. Notwithstanding all this Calligan, with words which stamp him as a disgrace to the country which shelters and protects him and his, comes forward to denounce this impartial administration of justice as an outrage and to call for revenge. The doom to which Burke, Coughlin and O'Sullivan have been sent is so awful that, despite the hideous crime which dyed their hands and made them deserve it, it must excite some feeling of pity in the heart of the most loyal citizen, but the comment of Calligan will turn that citizen from his pity to a feeling of thankfulness that the terrible example is given to others who like the Chicago Irishman, whose opinion we have quoted, have a disposition in their murderous hearts to follow the lead of the Cronin assassins. The presence of a large number of Calligans in the country is as lamentable as it is undeniable but the lesson taught by the events which transpired in Judge McConnell's court room on Monday will be studied well by them and will restrain their cowardly hearts from like defiance of the laws long after Burke, Coughlin and O'Sullivan have ... their sentences and gone to their ...

Fifty-First Congress

SENATE

WASHINGTON, December 19.—The house concurrent resolution for a holiday recess from Saturday next till Monday, January 6, was concurred in this morning by the senate.

Stewart, from the committee on military affairs reported a resolution directing an examination by the treasury of the war claims of the state of California growing out of Indian hostilities and disturbances. It was agreed to.

Cullom introduced a resolution to provide for the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America, by an exposition of arts industry and manufactures and products, in 1892.

George introduced a resolution to permit the states to tax national bank notes and United States notes.

Chandler called up the resolution offered by him in regard to an organization among naval officers to influence congressional legislation. After lengthy discussion it was agreed to.

The resolution offered yesterday calling for information as to the disposition of the lands of the military reservations relinquished by the war department was agreed to.

The resolution offered yesterday by Coke as to the attack on Justice Field in California and the killing of Terry was referred to the judiciary committee.

Mitchell offered an amendment to the Pacific railroad funding bill which was referred to the select committee on that subject. He explained that the bill itself was confined to the Union Pacific and its branches and his amendment applied to the Central Pacific and its branches.

The senate then went into executive session.

After the doors were reopened a message was received from the house announcing the deaths during the recess of its representatives Laird, Townshend and Cox.

Resolutions expressive of the regret of the senate were offered by Manderson, Cullom and Evarts and agreed to, and as a further mark of respect to the deceased the senate adjourned.

Julia Harding, the actress, furnishes a letter of deep interest, which will be published in the Sunday Gazette, on "The Marriages of Artistes," in which she discusses a great social problem in a unique style.

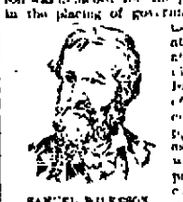
The construction of these domes will give the decorators a wide field for ornamentation. Gold, silver, steel, copper and cathedral glass will be used with a lavish hand, and the ceiling will be lighted by 2,000 reflected electric lights. The opening will take place some time in 1890; the exact date cannot be given at this time. The cost of the palace complete, including specimens, will be considerably over $1,000,000. Outside of the stone, all of which is given free, the building will cost about $250,000. The building will be surrounded by handsomely laid out grounds.

SAMUEL WILKESON.

The Well Known Railroad Secretary who Has Just Died.

Samuel Wilkeson, journalist, engineer and railroad official, who died recently, was born in Buffalo in 1817, graduated from Union college and studied law. He early showed a predisposition for newspaper work, and in 1836 started a liberal daily paper in Buffalo, The Democracy. Governor Seward and Thurlow Weed persuaded him to go to The Albany Evening Journal. He bought an interest and managed the paper for a year and a half, when his health failed, and he sold out. After a rest he went on the editorial staff of The New York Tribune, and eventually represented the paper in Washington. For a year immediately after the impeachment was over he left The Tribune for The New York Times. This occurred from his indignation at Horace Greeley's action in bailing Jeff Davis.

While in The Tribune service Mr. Wilkeson was ... in the ... for the purpose of aiding in the placing of government ... He ... ways and attained a remarkable success in procuring ... He went ... upon a mission to make a preliminary survey, and in 1870 he became secretary of the company, a office he always afterward held, doing all he came to do for twenty-nine years.



SAMUEL WILKESON.

Mr. Wilkeson himself is that hardly less distinguished for physical and intellectual vigor, known as Scotch Irish. His father was one of the founders of Buffalo, N. Y. In appearance the son was of moderate figure, but of full height and distinctive of force. His hair and beard of late years was snowy white. His eyes were especially expressive.

His health failing last October, he was granted an unlimited leave of absence, with full pay by the company, accompanied by a confidential order, in the hope that rest would restore him, but without avail.

On Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Wood received word from Sheriff Jack Arkansas Dave Hood had been stolen from the Rock Island depot at Pueblo by a man named Mc Laird. Wood left for Pueblo on the 10:30 train Wednesday morning early in the morning and arrested the man as he left the train. Wood and Hood returned to Pueblo on the afternoon train, reaching Manitou about 5 o'clock. Sheriff Jacks and Cook were here this morning and took the prisoner to Denver.

MANITOU SPRINGS

The plans of the new building of the Manitou Mineral Water company are completed and were placed in the hands of contractors yesterday for bids.

Mr. J. Ed. Newton is having plans prepared for a handsome residence for himself. He intends building on the lot on Arcade hill near Major John Bulbert. The house will be worth about $2000.

The stock of hardware, crockery, glass and tin ware has arrived to stock the new store of L. Smith & Co. The rapid growth which Manitou is having will sustain a store of this description. Mr. Wallace Gould, formerly of the livery firm of Hutchinson & Co., has purchased there of the state. At present there are seen about $3500 worth of stock received, though more will be added later. It is the intention of the proprietors to erect a tin shop in the rear of the building now occupied, and they will then be prepared to do all manner of tinning, including the laying of tin roofs. The new store will be a great convenience to the people of Manitou Springs.

Owing to the muddy condition of the water in the city waterworks there has been considerable fear expressed that the fire mains along the Pike's Peak railway might fail to furnish the water. Yesterday Mayor Stillman and Alderman J. P. Barnes went to Manitou and held a conversation with the contractors of the road. These gentlemen gave every assurance that they would protect the water from defilement the very best they could. They state that the camps are pitched from the creek some considerable distance. They do not even use the water of the creek, but instead use spring water for cooking and washing purposes. Pits have been made into which all garbage and refuse matter is thrown, and strict orders have been issued that the men are to leave the water alone. The muddy appearance of the water is caused by the loose rock and fish carts thrown into the creek by the men. Mr. McElhany, in charge of the work and reservoir, has been appointed a special policeman and will patrol the creek with authority to arrest anyone found fishing the water.

A [illegible] yesterday looked over the fine furniture establishment of John Lennox at No. 22 Pike's Peak avenue. DON'T PAY RENT.

We are selling our installment houses very rapidly, and many men who have paid out hundreds of dollars for rent are now applying the money toward paying for their own homes. To buy on installments is a wise policy, even if the property did not advance, for it enables the buyer to save his money, but there is a steady and sure advance in value on every foot of property in this city. The best in stallment bargains on our list at present are as follows:
